The Editorial Board will be appointed by the Council.

Associate Editors need not be a member of the Society.

11. AWARDS

Dr GR Seth Memorial Young Scientist Award:

For motivating and encouraging young scientists in the field of Agricultural Statistics, the Society has instituted an award for young scientists. Members of the Society including students members are eligible for consideration for the award. The award will be conferred upon the selected candidates during the Annual Conference of the Society. The detailed procedure for the award is given in Section 3.1 of the bye-laws of the Society.

Best Paper Award:

With a view to promote research in Statistics and Informatics and thereby help improve the standard and quality of the Journal, the Society has instituted Best Paper Award for the best articles published in the Journal. The detailed procedure for the award is contained in Section 3.2 of the bye-laws of the Society.

Sankhyiki Bhushan Award:

The Society may honour the outstanding scientist who has rendered distinguished service to the cause of Statistics and its application to Agriculture and allied fields with the title of Sankhyiki Bhushan. The detailed procedure is contained in Section 3.3 of the bye-laws of the Society.

Prof. P.V. Sukhatme Gold Medal Award:

This award has been instituted by the Society in the memory of Prof. P.V. Sukhatme, a founder member of the Society. It may be given to a well-known active scientist who has made significant contribution in Agricultural Statistics and/or allied fields and has keen interest in the activities of the Society. The detailed procedure is contained in Section 3.4 of the bye-laws of the Society.

Dr. D.N. Lal Memorial Lecture Award:

This award has been instituted as an endowment award in the memory of Dr. D.N. Lal with an endowment of ₹ 50,000.00 made by his wife for persons who have rendered distinguished service to the cause of Statistics in general and its application to Agriculture and allied fields in particular. The detailed procedures are contained in Section 3.5 of the bye-laws of the Society.

12. WITHDRAWAL OR REMOVAL OF MEMBERS

A member may withdraw from the Society by signifying his desire to do so in a letter addressed to the Secretary. The Society, however, shall not be liable to return any fee that may have been paid by the member.

A member who has withdrawn and whose subscription is not in arrears shall automatically recover the privileges of membership without re-enrolment, if he rejoins the Society within a year of withdrawal. He shall be liable to pay all dues as if he had not withdrawn at all.

The Council shall have the power to remove any member of the Society from its rolls.

13. AMENDMENTS TO THE RULES

The Rules may be amended at any Annual General Meeting or at any Extraordinary General Meeting of the Society called for the purpose, by a two-third majority of the members present.

A proposal for the amendment of Rules may be made either by the Council or by at least two per cent of the members. It must reach the Secretary in writing in time for circulation to all members of the Society at least one month before the Annual or Extraordinary General Meeting.

The Council may, with the approval of the General Body, frame or alter constitution/bye-laws for the working of the Society, not inconsistent with the Rules.

14. HEADQUARTERS

The headquarters of the Society shall be at New Delhi.

The members may propose the names for filling six vacant positions of the Council. Out of these 6, one may conventionally be reserved for the Organizing Secretary of the conference. The complete procedure of nomination for the vacant positions is to be communicated to all members.

The person whose name is proposed should be a member of the Society. The proposal, seconded by another member and with the consent of the proposed persons should reach the Secretary before the prescribed date and well before the General Body Meeting.

The proposal made by the members for filling up six vacant positions will be scrutinized by the Secretary of the Society. The valid nominations will be put to vote through a secret ballot and the result will be announced by the Returning Officer duly appointed by the Executive Council.

If any vacant position is not filled up as per procedure suggested above, the Council may further propose names for filling up the vacant positions.

The names proposed by the Council as well as those elected by members will be placed before the General Body for approval.

Nomination to the Executive Council

The Director, Indian Agricultural Statistics Research Institute, New Delhi; Economic & Statistical Adviser, Ministry of Agriculture, Government of India, New Delhi; Director General, Central Statistical Organization, Government of India, New Delhi and Director General, National Sample Survey Organization, Government of India, New Delhi and Chair, Editor Journal of the Indian Society of Agricultural Statistics will be the Ex-officio members of the Executive Council of the Society.

The Secretary and Treasurer shall keep accounts, shall receive and disburse money and operate accounts of the Society in the bank on behalf of the Society according to the directions of the Council.

ISAS Fellows

Any person who has been a member of the Society continuously for at least ten years shall become eligible to be a Fellow of the Society.

Nomination for new fellow in a given year should be proposed by two existing fellows with the concurrence of the nominee.

Nomination for Fellowship shall be made in the prescribed Proforma (given in ANNEXURE-I) along with details of his/her most significant academic and professional achievements and should be sent to the Secretary of the Society latest by July 31 of each year. The scoring criterion is given in ANNEXURE-V. The minimum qualifying marks are 70 for ISAS Fellowship.

A screening committee including suitable outside specialists, if necessary, constituted by the Executive Council will examine the nominations received in a year and recommend suitable names for Fellows for that year.

The Executive Council will, in the light of the recommendation of the screening committee, propose not more than two names in a given year for Fellowship to the General Body for approval.

The number of Fellowships at no time should exceed five per cent of the number of members (life and ordinary) who have been members continuously for at least ten years.

After the approval of the General Body, the Fellows will be given a certificate and their names would be announced in the Journal of the Society.

The Fellows can use the letters F.I.S.A.S. after their names.

3. AWARDS

Dr GR Seth Memorial Young Scientist Award

Only members of the Society (ISAS) including student members will be eligible for consideration for this award.

The upper age limit of the scientist for the award will be 35 years as on 30 September, preceding the Conference.

The papers to be considered for award shall have young scientist as the first author.

The work must have been carried out in India and it should be an original contribution and not published elsewhere.

Five copies of the full paper along with its abstract not exceeding 200 words should reach the Secretary of the Society not later than 30 September, preceding the Conference. Bio-data, including full name and address along with date of birth (duly attested copy of certificate), research experience, list of publications should be appended to the complete paper.

Stress will be given on both quality of research and presentation.

The Council will nominate a panel of judges who will grade the papers as A, B, C and select the best three research papers. No paper will be selected if it gets less than 2 A's.

The authors of these papers will be invited to present their papers in a special session during the Conference. The merit will be judged by the Sessional President assisted preferably by the above committee. The decision of the Committee will be final. (These authors may be given financial assistance to attend the conference, if required).

Only one candidate will be chosen for the award.

The name of the awardee will be announced by the Secretary of the Society at the meeting of the General Body.

A certificate of merit and award in a suitable form (worth about ₹ 2,500/-) will be given to the awardee with citation.

The research paper of the candidate selected for Dr GR Seth Memorial Young Scientist Award would be published in the Journal of the Indian Society of Agricultural Statistics.

Best Paper Award

Not more than one award will be given in each of the fields (a) Design of Experiments, (b) Sample Surveys, (c) Statistical Genetics/Genomics, (d) Statistical Theory and Methodology, (e) Applied Statistics and (f) Informatics in a year.

The articles chosen for the award should be of sufficiently high standard.

The prizes will be awarded biennially.

The decision on the award in each field will be made by a panel of two referees, selected by the Chair Editor and the Secretary of the Society out of a list of experts in the field approved by the Council.

Papers will be graded as A+, A, A-, B and C by the referees and those getting a minimum of A- by both the referees/judges will be considered for the award. Chair Editor and Secretary of the Society will act as judges and will use their judgment before making recommendations to the Executive Council for approval.

No award will be made if none of the article is found to be of the desired standard.

Not more than one paper will be selected in each of the above six categories.

A certificate and Cash Award in the form of Cheque ( ₹2500/-) will be given for each paper selected for the award. Amount will be equally shared among the authors.

Sankhyiki Bhushan Award
